OBITUARY

Silas Iverson was born November 5, 1913 in Ringgold, Louisiana to Robert and Annie Iverson. He was schooled in the immediate area and became a Christian early in life, uniting with the Saint Mary Baptist Church, giving a Godly environment for his upbringing.

He developed a beautiful character enabling him to make and maintain many friends. He had a profound love for people and gave generously of himself and his means to help anyone in need and for the work of the Lord.

He was united in marriage to Louise Hodge, who preceded him in death. To this union one son was born, Lonzie L. Iverson. Subsequently he was married to Boline Cockerham. To this union one daughter was born, Kathleen Lucille. He united with the Paradise Baptist Church shortly after arriving in the city, where he served faithfully.

On Saturday, August 22, 1981, he made a quiet and peaceful exit, leaving to cherish his precious memories, a wife, Boline Iverson; a son, Lonzie Lee and his wife, Edie; a daughter, Kathleen Lucille and her husband, Carl, all of Los Angeles; three sisters, Dora Jones of Richmond, Calif., Ora Glover and Girtha Johnson of Ringgold, La.; five grandchildren, two great grandchildren, relatives and a host of friends.

And I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.—Amen.
